Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six-month period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Students wishing to withdraw from a course and request a refund may do so in any manner by contacting Student Services at 408-453-9900 and completing the appropriate forms. Eligible refund requests will be paid within 30 days of the date of receipt of the refund request.

Students who withdraw within seven (7) days of the start date of the course will receive a full refund of course fees (including applicable taxes) paid to University. Students requesting a withdrawal during subsequent weeks from their start date are entitled to the amounts listed in the chart below for a 10-week course. Refundable Tuition Due to Student based on the start date of course:

- 100% for anytime between 1 day and 7 days after start date
- 80% for anytime between 8 days and 14 days after start date
- 60% for anytime between 15 days and 21 days after start date
- 40% for anytime between 22 days and 28 days after start date
- 20% for anytime between 29 days and 35 days after start date
- No refunds will be made after the fifth week (or 35 days) after the start of the course.

If the University has collected money from a student for transmittal on the student's behalf to a third party for a bond, library usage, or fees for a license, application, or examination and the University has not paid the money to the third party at the time of the student's request for refund, the University shall refund the money to the student within 30 days of receipt of the student's refund request. The University is not eligible to receive federal student aid funds.

Henley-Putnam students are not eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government.
